Mystery in "Headless" Autopsy

VICTIM'S HEAD WAS SEVERED

HAMPTON BEACH, N. H., Nov. 12.—The mystery of the headless body of a woman found on the beach here and believed by the police to have been slain despite today with the announcement of the finding of the autopsy by three medical experts. The doctor declared the woman's head had been "severed at the second vertebrae."

Though the doctors did not determine the cause of death, the authorities declared themselves more strongly convinced the woman was a victim of foul play. This caused the police to widen the scope of their investigation to take in parts of Maine, New Hampshire and Massachusetts.

The autopsy was commenced at noon and formed the second big development today, the head being the missing link of the police of the "red woman of Portsmouth" with the mystery. The woman is a mysterious figure who has been seen in the Portsmouth streets, every night for several months until she suddenly disappeared.

The doctors performing the autopsy—William B. Shaw, Dr. George E. Pender of Portsmouth and Dr. A. P. Smith of Hampton—made five copies of their findings.

Defy 13 in Party to Jessie Wilson

13th Day, 13 Guests at Mrs. Joseph Daniels' Luncheon.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The festivities attending the approaching marriage of Miss Jessie Wilson to Francis H. Davis of New York began today with a luncheon by Mrs. Joseph Daniels, wife of the Secretary of the Navy.

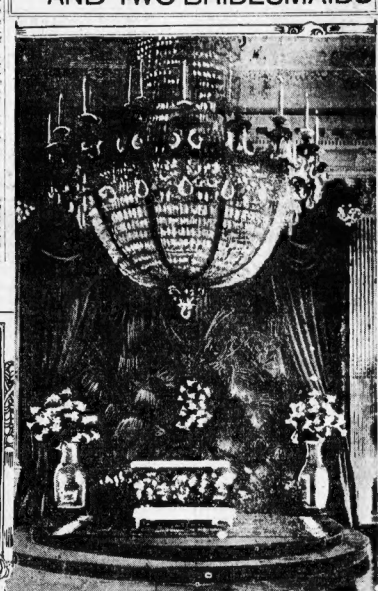

The party defied superstition and upped the belief of the so-called "thirteenth" in the lack of "thirteens," by having thirteen guests and giving the affair on the thirteenth of the month.

Incidentally Mrs. Wilson will be the thirteenth White House bride.

Among the guests were Miss Nona McAdoo, daughter of the Secretary of the Treasury; Miss Ethel G. White of Baltimore; Miss Genevieve Clark, daughter of the Speaker; and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Barry Ill During Washington Visit

Lieutenant Governor's clerk Edward P. Barry is expected to be ill in Washington with bacterial colitis. He is under the care of Dr. John W. Connelley and Mrs. Barry.

Body Disinterred

The body was that of a young woman who in life was about five feet, eight inches in height and weighed approximately 140 pounds. Her complexion was dark. The cause will remain a matter of conjecture.

The head was severed from the body at the second vertebrae. No marks were visible on the vertebrae to show that any instrument had been used in severing the head. The arms were severed at the elbows. There was no evidence on the bones of the arms to show that an instrument had been used on the arms.

The exposed bones were cleaned and showed evidence of having been worn by the action of the water. The vertebrae and bones were encased with sand, preventing an opinion as to whether slaving was the cause of death. The body had evidently been in the water about three weeks. There was nothing on the clothing to give any identity to the woman.

Will Hold Body at Portsmouth

County Solicitor Gifford says that the body will be held at the rooms of the undertaker, L. B. Jones, in Hampton, for identification. He hopes that from the publicity given the case that identification will be made through the club or, even though the body should be buried, until identification is effected no further move can be made by the authorities.

The "red woman," as she was known to the police, appeared in the town only in the evening about nine o'clock. She was of the same build and shape as the woman whose head was severed, but as far as is known, no citizen of Portsmouth has seen her.

She was dressed heavily veiled, and always attended a moving picture and a story which, until two weeks ago, when she disappeared, she acted out in the "red woman" story at the Hampton and the Beaches. She has not been seen for three weeks, and the police are inclined to the belief that she and the dead woman are the same.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 12.—Governor Dill's bill has received from Washington a letter which had been sent to Miss Jessie Wilson, asking her to use her influence with President Wilson in regard to Mrs. Brine Wakefield, named to be hanged on March 4 for complicity in the death of her husband, William O. Wakefield. The letter was signed "Mrs. Brine Wakefield."

ARRESTED OF GRAFT

Herbert L. Wardner, William G. Smith and Frank E. Seale, prominent Boston business men, were arrested today on indictments charging them with conspiracy to steal from the City of New Bedford in connection with the erection of the Cleveland High School there.

Wardner is an architect. The others are manager and assistant manager of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company of No. 90 Hanover street. The Suffolk County grand jury returned the indictments. A third Attorney Pollitzer presented the case. The men were arrested today, indicted, and released on $2,000 bail.

Wardner was the architect of the school building. It was to cost $120,000. His conclusion was 35 per cent, or about $42,000.

The charge on which the indictments are issued is that the three men conspired to give Wardner a gratuity of $20,000, in return for which he made certain specifications for the building. The $20,000 in question is in the possession of Mr. Pollitzer, in custody. It is stated Mr. Pollitzer received it from a man who had been paid by the city.

Conspiracy Is Charged

The $20,000 bonus was, it is charged, in connection with the gift of the school. The original specifications called for marble. These were changed to charge marble to call for "Cararra" marble. The contract price for this was set at $12,124. Mr. Pollitzer received the $20,000 from the city. The contract price for this was set at $12,124. Mr. Pollitzer received the $20,000 from the city.

Many Officials Examined

The witnesses before the grand jury included the following New Bedford officials: Mayor William J. Russell, Superintendent of Public Buildings, Joseph J. Gibbs, Clerk of Commissioners, Charles J. Sawyer, City Clerk, Walter H. B. Russell, and City Treasurer, William S. Cook.

The two women were arrested before Wardner. Herman Seale, who was arrested, went their last to $2,000 apiece, offering real estate worth $20,000 as money. The American Savings Bank of New York and the City of New Bedford were named in the indictment. The men were arrested before Judge McLaughlin, and charged with conspiracy.

Wardner was a member of the old firm of Chong & Wardner, which had a Portland branch. Chong recently died. Wardner was married to a woman named Mrs. E. E. Seale, and lives at No. 15 Hanover street, Boston. He is 40 years of age, is a native of New Bedford, and has been in the city for forty-five years. GOING TO SAIL SATURDAY, LATE MEXICAN RUMOR

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 12.—General Victoriano Huerta, President and dictator of Mexico, has disappeared as a moment when the relations of this republic and the United States are at the breaking point.

Sensational reports as to Huerta's whereabouts and plans are being circulated. The one most discussed is that he is preparing a flight from the country.

REPORTED TO HAVE ENGAGED PASSAGE.

The Puerto Ricans, living in New York harbor, sail on Saturday, and the city is full of reports that the presidential candidate will be one of the passengers when she leaves. A note of statements on the floor has been issued for some high Mexican official. Coming as this rumor does on the heels of the news that Huerta, Huerta and other officials of the present regime had sent their families out of the country, the story that Huerta is on the point of emulating the wily Porfirio has gained thousands of believers.

Outwardly, however, Huerta follows are still making ready to plunge into a war with the United States.

Apartment House Ads in the BOSTON AMERICAN Are Sought Out by Readers

Never fear that these ads will not be read and answered, no matter how little they pay. The small ad that clearly states vital facts and gets before enough of the right people does more good than the sprawling big one in papers of small circulation.

Wherefore are American Apartment House ads, even the smallest, productive of tenants and leases, as many owners and progressive renting agents whose ads were in the Sunday AMERICAN can testify.

They don't begrudge paying our rate, inasmuch as they get the best results in the city.

Don't miss the opportunities for renting apartments the Boston AMERICAN will offer every day of this last month of the Fall Renting Season.

You Have Lost Two Years of Your Life

At Least, So Henry A. Perkins of Yale Says.

The Harvard Alumni Bulletin has received and has been considering an article in the Yale Review by Henry A. Perkins of Yale, stating that in the course of the preparatory school work, before he reached college, the American child has lost two years of his life.

It is this, Dr. Perkins says, that is the cause of the American child's lack of initiative and originality, which most people take toward children.

Lucky Man!
He's Just Bought a SHUMAN $20 Suit

There's a mighty good reason for his smile. He's just come from Shuman Corner, where, with only a word to the capable salesman, he was fitted with a new, fall suit that's just what he wanted.

Here's the kind of a suit he bought. Tell us where else he could find anywhere near so much real value:

Men's Suits in long, English, soft roll, with and without cuffs on sleeves. In attractive soft and hard finished worsteds and nobby Scotch effects—the season's most popular fabrics. Also in staple blue, brown, gray and black for the more conservative dressers. Linings specially selected for durability. Canvas linings carefully stayed. In fact the same honesty of workmanship inside as well as out, that you naturally expect to find in a garment which bears the Shuman etiquette . . .

MENDEL BELLS WAS BEATEN AND KICKED WHILE IN JAIL

RELEASED VICTIM OF PERSECUTION RE-LATES ABUSES OF CAPTORS

KIEV, Nov. 12.—The house of Mendel Bells is surrounded by soldiers, partly on account of the Black Thursday to all him, and partly because he is no stronger than of danger yet, as the present has fourteen days in which to appeal from the verdict, in which case Bells would be executed.

Bells looks much the same as he did in the dock, except that he had trimmed his beard and worn different clothing. He was in a slightly nervous state when seen today. Despite the joy of being free, his face bore the unmistakable seal of sadness as a result of his ordeal.

"I was two and a half years in prison, for life in prison left me very weak," he said, "but now that I am free and can get some good food, I feel sure I will be soon well again."

"I do not like to speak about my life in prison. I was treated most abominably."

city owing to the determined action of the government in providing against disturbances. The streets are being patrolled by cossacks fully prepared to suppress any anti-Jewish outbreaks. The police are on duty, but they will not maintain peace. Nevertheless there are many anti-Jewish activities in the city, and to select upon any opportunity to molest and abuse the Jews, and this is not an exaggeration. It will be put down with an iron hand.

TO INTRODUCE BILL IN DUMA FOR EQUAL RIGHTS FOR JEWS

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 12.—The first result of the Russian "ritual murder" trial was the introduction in the Duma of a bill for the equal rights of the Jews to the Russian citizens.

This would have the effect of abolishing the Jewish Pale and all restrictive statutes affecting social grades in Russia. It would also remove the present obstacles which prevented the breaking of the treaty with the United States.

Joseph S. Marcus, president of the Bank of the United States, No. 31 the money street, it was said here, has secured the conversion of the proposed bill into a law.

It was reported that Marcus is active in the Duma in an effort to obtain a revision of the trial.

From the Liberal and angry protests from the Conservatives.

M. Shingareff, at yesterday's session, declared that the present bill alone "saved Russia from disaster, and the present bill is a disaster to Russia."

LONDON STANDARD SAYS RITUAL MURDER CALUMNY YET LIVES

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The London Standard, in an editorial on the ritual murder case, says:

"The second edition of the ritual murder case, which the faithful followers of the orthodox church, the satisfaction of still following the ancient ruling."

"Throughout these years, thousands of peasants, workmen and even people of education, who have been told, from a priest, that the Jews had murdered the Christian children for the blood of the Christian children, have been told, from a priest, that the Jews had murdered the Christian children for the blood of the Christian children."

Safe and Sane Football Is Shown Mostly Before the Gridiron Season Begins

HARVARD COACHES SATISFIED WITH WORK OF NEW LINEUP AND IT WILL LIKELY BE PERMANENT

If Tigers and Yale Both Win; What Then?

There Is No Felton This Year and the Game Is Not So Unequal as It Seems

By RILEY.

After hearing all this hubbub about Princeton-Yale and Yale-Harvard, you have to admit that football is quite a college game. Examining all the "dope" concerning football in this present year, one is convinced that the best thing about football is that there is no way of settling a better show around. What if Princeton beats Yale and Yale beats Harvard, for instance?

We all know, of course, that Brickett is one of our best little drop kickers today and we are told that Harvard has the best eleven on the job. But we also hear Harvard's stout boss, Percy Haughton, substantially admitting that the "long distance" punch, which Harvard has provided Mr. Brickett with is the very best thing that Harvard has shown this year.

Now, with all due respect to Mr. Haughton, we find that Princeton has shown that it is more than a "distant punch" Harvard did last November, that Princeton failed a Brickett in the "long distance" punch, into a game in the long distance.

Odds Look Too Long

Now, we find from the Yale-Harvard game that Yale today has a much better football machine than Yale had a few weeks ago. That Princeton has lost about as good when Harvard beat the Tigers, 3 to 0, as when Harvard beat Yale, 10 to 0, under almost the same conditions, that Yale has a much better machine than Yale had a few weeks ago, and therefore, we conclude that those who are betting 10 to 1 against Yale to win this year are betting 10 to 1 against a sure thing.

Harvard beats Yale are quite assured. Harvard's stout boss, Percy Haughton, has said that he is not at all sure that Yale will win this year. He has said that he is not at all sure that Yale will win this year. He has said that he is not at all sure that Yale will win this year.

There is no Felton This Year. But Harvard this year is just as good of punter as Harvard was "long" on Sam Felton last year. You will remember that Yale had a long kicker in "Lester" Ryan and a short kicker in "Punchy" Ball. Ryan kicked too far and Punchy kicked too high.

Harvard had, in Felton, a man who kicked just what was needed. He kicked just what was needed. He kicked just what was needed. He kicked just what was needed.

Don't Worry About Colgate. You can take that Colgate-Yale game and take it for what it is. It is a game. It is a game. It is a game. It is a game.

Freddy Duffy Gets Chance to 'Come Back'

Jamaica Plain Boy to Meet Eddie Flynn at Atlas Club Next Monday Evening

By JACK CONWAY.

Freddie Duffy, the clever Jamaica Plain fighter, will receive an opportunity to "come back" at the Atlas A. M. next Monday evening when he meets Eddie Flynn of Lynn in the south-east bout of eight rounds to the Sam Langford and "Gibson" Smith battle.

Duffy was considered one of the most promising fighters of his weight in New England two years ago. He was then matched with "Young" Ahern, the Brooklyn "Battering Ram," and was knocked out. That was the end of his career in the ring.

Freddie says he is in good condition now, and that he will be a surprise to the writer if a new club were named in Boston as soon as the boxing season opens to a close at the Atlas.

SMITH BOUT IMPORTANT.

The meeting between Langford and Smith will be one of the most important ring events of the year. Smith is recognized as the white heavyweight champion, while Langford is the negro champion.

Smith's career has been a brilliant one. He has won many titles and has fought some of the best fighters in the world.

Langford's career has also been successful. He has won many titles and has fought some of the best fighters in the world.

Langford's career has also been successful. He has won many titles and has fought some of the best fighters in the world.

Haughton Will Likely Stick to New Lineup

Harvard's Latest Eleven Gave Perfect Satisfaction in First Scrimmage and Will Remain Unchanged

By SYD LYNES.

THEIR seems to be little reason to suspect now that the recent shift in the Harvard lineup will be permanent. In other words, we think it will be as it is.

It has given great satisfaction in our scrimmage this far and the last hard workout, as far as scrimmaging is concerned, was passed for today, and with the new order still unchanged it will surely have a good tryout against Brown, for it is hardly likely that Coach Haughton, rather than as sometimes said it today to be a very likely eleven again.

Harvard is working under these days in preparation for a slightly hard game with Yale, despite the fact that the eleven, who are offering heavy odds on the Crimson. The test will be made on the line, and the feeling of the Harvard eleven about the new lineup is very good. A very likely eleven again.

"Gentiles Only," Says the Man
Advertising for Clerks

Jews Need Not Worry. The "Gentiles Only" Type of Business Man or Nation Usually Turns Up in Bankruptcy.

(Copyright, 1913, by Walter Connors)

Arthur H. Hirsch writes from the Young Men's Christian Association building in Cleveland, Ohio. He sends the following complaint:

Editor Boston AMERICAN:

Dear Sir—I am writing you this little note in regard to an advertisement I noticed in one of the Sunday papers. The ad is as follows:

"Young men wanted in mail order house: Gentiles only." Now, dear sir, I would like to see an editorial in your paper letting the public, as a whole, know something about these narrow-minded concerns.

Mr. Hirsch need not worry about the "Gentiles only" type of bad citizen. There are many of them in America as well as in Russia—but they are growing fewer all the time. AND A GOOD MANY OF THEM ARE GOING INTO BANKRUPTCY.

The man who wants "Gentiles only" in a country that pretends to be the refuge and a land of opportunity for all is a bad citizen, and a bad citizen is USUALLY A FAILURE.

If the individual who wants Gentiles only on his payroll AND IS VERY GLAD INDEED TO TAKE IN JEWISH MONEY OVER HIS COUNTRY would look back a little way in history he would find some warnings.

In Spain and Portugal Torquemada and other torturers thought that they wanted "Gentiles only."

They drove out of Spain and out of Portugal the Jews whose commercial genius had built up the wealth of both countries.

They drove out the Jewish thinkers, such men as the very great Spinoza, who went to Holland, where he lived in poverty and served as a beacon light to the thinkers of the world for generations that followed him.

Those haters of the Jews, those "Gentiles only" ignoramuses drove to England and to this country men that, kept at home, MIGHT HAVE SAVED SPAIN AND PORTUGAL FROM DISGRACE, BANKRUPTCY AND A FOOLISH, MISERABLE PLACE AMONG THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD.

The "Gentiles only" idea that drives out a Spinoza and breeds "King Manuel" will work as badly in America as it did in Spain and Portugal.

No man will succeed in this country unless he is worthy TO LIVE IN THIS COUNTRY.

The man who discriminates against another because of his race or religion is unfit for a Republic.

And that fact will be impressed upon him sooner or later when he discovers HIS INABILITY TO COMPETE.

Mr. Mellen Says Government
Ownership of Railroads Is Coming Quickly

And Mr. Mellen Has Only Confessed Publicly What Every Intelligent Man and Financier Admits Privately.

The AMERICAN calls attention to some of the remarkable statements in President Mellen's review of our recent railroad history. He said:

The railroads will all go under government ownership. It is coming quickly. Five years ago I felt that I would not live to see it. But now I think that I shall. The regulation by the government during the last ten years has tended to lower the value of railroad stocks as investments. There is not the big money in railroads that there used to be.

For seven years the Boston AMERICAN has declared that public ownership of the railroads was INEVITABLE.

Mr. Mellen is a very able man. He has been in the railroad business for nearly half a century. He has been at the head of two of the greatest railroad systems in the world. He had the capacity of being a better operator of the New Haven than he was, if the houses of J. P. Morgan, Rockefeller and their New York and Wall street confederates who then and NOW control the New Haven's board of directors had permitted.

Mr. Mellen KNOWS what he is talking about when he says that public ownership is at hand.

Public ownership of the railroads has been SUCCESSFUL wherever it has been tried. There is no greater travesty upon our capacity for self-government than the pretense of those who are opposed to the public ownership of railroads that our government cannot handle the great public function of transportation as well as other countries do.

The express companies predicted that the government could not do an express business through its postoffice department. THE TREMENDOUS SUCCESS of our parcel post is an ALL-SUFFICIENT ANSWER to that pretence.

Mr. Mellen has only confessed PUBLICLY what every intelligent man and financier admits PRIVATELY must come in this country before long, for every intelligent man who appreciates the situation

A Moral Lesson of a Modern Rake's Progress

How young "Charlie" Gates, reckless spendthrift, hurried himself into an untimely grave by feverishly pursuing everything that was NOT worth while in one of the greatest moral lessons of the day. It proves again that "The wages of sin is death." A whole page is devoted to his sad and tragic end in next Sunday's AMERICAN, and we advise every young man to read it. It cannot help but convince you of the folly of such a career.

And this is only one of the important and exclusive features being prepared for you in next Sunday's AMERICAN. Note the following:

Clara Morris Tells Secret of What Becomes of Actresses' Money.

The curious reasons why so many women who earn big salaries on the stage are unable to pay their bills and often end their lives in poverty.

A Drop Into the Seething Crater of Vesuvius.

Important new discoveries and wonderful photographs made by a daring scientist who descended, at the risk of his life, further into the heart of the treacherous volcano than man had ever gone before.

How Science Bred a "291-Egg" Hen.

Professor James Dryden of the Oregon Agricultural College, who reared this champion egg producer, explains how he did it and hints that some day we may have hens that will lay 3,000 eggs.

The Way to Get Cheaper and Better Meat.

How the cost of living might be lowered and the danger of a meat famine averted if we ate horse flesh as they do in Europe.

How to Give Large and Small Teas.

Author of "The Etiquette of New York Today" gives valuable advice to the hostess who wishes to entertain her friends in accordance with the best social usage.

Do Hotel Kitchens Need Investigating?

An official Department of Agriculture bulletin gives a surprising peep behind the scenes in some large hotels and restaurants and reveals an extremely unpleasant and really dangerous state of affairs.

How Alcohol Ruins Your Digestion.

Eminent English physician, explaining how the habitual use of alcohol, even in small quantities, disturbs all the body's functions and creates a condition that is a standing invitation to disease.

Where Shakespeare Went to Church.

Curious religious paintings, lost more than a century ago, restored to the world by the discovery of a rare volume of copies of the very pictures which inspired the Bard of Avon.

Mr. Mellen Says Government Ownership of Railroads Is Coming Quickly

knows that this republic cannot endure while the great public service corporations, its own creatures, continue to have more power than the government itself, controlling our Legislatures in defiance of public opinion and in defiance of the solemn promises of the legislators themselves.

Public ownership is the necessity of our very existence as a republic. When we take over the railroads, we shut AN ENEMY to the greatest source of political corruption. Not until then can we hope to set our legislators free.

Mr. Mellen has given us a slight idea of the tremendous waste in the private conduct of our railroads. In reference to the money deliberately pilfered from the New Haven through the scandalous New York, Westchester and Boston transaction by the New York gang which controls the New Haven, Mr. Mellen said:

If I had had that money without the Westchester I could have four-tracked the road from Boston to Providence; could have taken out curvature and revised alignment which would have saved us five miles between Providence and New London, and I could have electrified the entire New Haven road between New York and Boston.

Think of it, readers! In one transaction, money that would have given us AN ELECTRIC RAILROAD TO NEW YORK by which we could reach the great metropolis in less time and in clean, comfortable cars, was stolen from the New Haven. It probably would cost no more to electrify every railroad out of Boston for twenty miles. Consider what it would mean to us all, what it would mean to the value of our real estate, to our lands, to our seashore resorts, to our comfort and to our health. This is only ONE transaction that an insider has confessed and there are hundreds of others.

Speed the day when Mr. Mellen's prediction shall COME TRUE and that the government shall transport us as it now carries our parcels and our mail and as it teaches our children and brings us our water and maintains our streets and protects our property from fire and robbery.

When a timid and unprogressive citizen tells you that we cannot undertake so great a task, remind him that it was not many years ago when the business of carrying on war was conducted as a private enterprise and soldiers were maintained and hired out by private organizations for private profit; that the school was wholly a private institution; that private individuals built the highways and levied toll on all who used them and that private individuals stretched their booms across the rivers and levied tolls on traders who passed up and down; and that nearly all our public functions were once in the hands of private enterprise.
